

HOW DO I FILE A CLAIM?

If you believe that you are experiencing or have experienced genetic information discrimination, you should first contact the EEO representative in your agency.

Complaints must be filed within 30 days after you learned of the alleged violation.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact your EEO Office or the Office of the Statewide EEO Coordinator at (410) 767-3800.

SAFE AND CONFIDENTIAL

All investigations into your complaint are strictly confidential. Your information will only be discussed with pertinent individuals who need to know for purposes of investigation and resolution.

If you file a claim or pursue a complaint, oppose discrimination, or participate in an investigation, Maryland law protects you against retaliation by your employer.

It's important to understand that retaliation is not just limited to firing. It includes other adverse actions such as harassment, demotion, and unjustified negative evaluations.

GENETIC INFORMATION DISCRIMINATION

Office of the Statewide
Equal Employment Opportunity
Coordinator (OSEEOC)

Office of the Statewide Equal Employment
Opportunity Coordinator (OSEEOC)

DEFINING GENETIC INFORMATION DISCRIMINATION:

Genetic information discrimination is the unfair treatment of a person because of his or her genetic information.

Genetic information is information about chromosomes, genes, gene products, or inherited characteristics that may derive from an individual or a family member; information obtained for diagnostic and therapeutic purposes; and information obtained at a time when the individual to whom the information relates is asymptomatic for the disease. Maryland Insurance Article § 27-909(a)(3).

Genetic Information does not include:

- routine physical measurements
- chemical, blood, and urine analyses that are widely accepted and in use in clinical practice
- drug tests
- HIV tests

Maryland Insurance Article § 27-909(a)(3).

GENETIC TEST:

A Genetic Test is a laboratory test of human chromosomes, genes, or gene products that is used to identify the presence or absence of hereditary or inherited alterations in genetic material that are associated with disease or illness. Maryland Insurance Article § 27-909(a)(5)

MARYLAND LAW

Protections are derived from Maryland's Anti-Discrimination law State Government Article Title 20 and also by Maryland's Code of Fair Employment Practices (Executive Order 01.01.2007.16).

Only an individual's merit and fitness should be taken into account in employment related decisions.

TYPES OF DISCRIMINATION:

Maryland law protects you from genetic information discrimination on the basis of:

- refusing to hire an applicant because of his or her genetic information
- discharging an employee because of his or her genetic information
- imposing negative personnel action on an employee for refusing to submit to a genetic test or for not providing the results of a genetic test
- requesting or requiring a genetic test or genetic information as a condition of employment or determining benefits.

HOW AM I PROTECTED?

It is illegal to discriminate on the basis of genetic information in regards to:

- recruitment
- wages
- transferring
- dismissal
- discipline
- work conditions
- promotions
- training
- advertisement
- retirement
- assignment
- performance evaluations

FIGHT DISCRIMINATION:

If you or someone you know is being discriminated against, you can take the following actions:

1. Speak to the harasser. S/he might not know that his or her behavior is offensive. Also, be sure to document the incident(s) thoroughly—date, time, exact words said, and, if applicable, witnesses.
2. Speak to your supervisor. S/he may have to report your information to the EEO Office.
3. Speak to your agency's EEO Office directly.
4. File a claim with the EEO Office.
