C00A00.01 Court of Appeals

Program Description

The Court of Appeals is the State's highest court and generally exercises only appellate jurisdiction. The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals is the administrative head of the judicial system of the State. The Court's appellate jurisdiction is almost fully discretionary with virtually all initial appeals heard by the Court of Special Appeals. In addition to its appellate adjudicatory functions, the Court of Appeals admits to the bar all persons eligible to practice law in the State; disciplines, suspends, and disbars lawyers subject to such action; and makes rules and regulations to govern practice, procedure, and judicial administration in all courts of the State.

C00A00.03 Circuit Court Judges

Program Description

The Circuit Courts for the 23 counties and Baltimore City are provided for in Article IV of the Constitution and various provisions of the Courts Article of the Code. These courts are Maryland's trial courts of general jurisdiction. They have original jurisdiction in the more serious criminal matters and the more substantial civil cases. In all counties but Montgomery, these courts exercise juvenile jurisdiction. These courts handle appeals from the District Court and from certain administrative agencies.

C00A00.04 District Court

Program Description

Article IV, Section 1 of the Maryland Constitution, created the District Court of Maryland as a Court of Record, with a Seal to be used in the authentication of process being issued by the Court. Section 1-601, of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, established the District Court of Maryland as a court of limited jurisdiction. Sections 41B-41I of Article IV, of the Maryland Constitution provide for the appointment of a Chief Judge, as well as judicial and non-judicial personnel, necessary to the functioning of the District Court of Maryland. CJ 1-620 divides the State into twelve districts and lists the composition of each district. The District Court of Maryland is currently administered by a Chief Judge. Assisting the Chief Judge with the daily operation of the Court is a Chief Clerk, four Assistant Chief Clerks, Chief Internal Auditor, and a Coordinator of Commissioner Activity. The Chief Judge also receives assistance from the Administrative Judge, the Administrative Clerk, and the Administrative Commissioner in each district.

C00A00.06 Administrative Office of the Courts

Program Description

Section 13-101 of the Courts and Judicial Proceeding Article of the Annotated Code provides for the establishment of an Administrative Office of the Courts, its personnel, duties, and functions. The office is headed by a State Court Administrator appointed by and serving at the pleasure of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals. The Administrative Office provides staff support to the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals and assists the Chief Judge in carrying out the duties of administrative head of the judicial system. The Office attempts to aid in improving the business methods of the courts of the State and enhance efficiency in performing judicial functions. The Administrative Office is establishing improved methods of gathering and reporting information through automated data processing; expanding programs of education and training for judicial and non-judicial personnel; and formalizing a planning process for the judicial system by identifying potential problem areas, developing feasible solutions for the problems, developing strategies for implementation of those solutions, and then implementing them.

C00A00.07 Court Related Agencies

Program Description

The Standing Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure and staff are appointed by the Court of Appeals, Sections 13-301 through 13-303 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article, in order to aid in the exercise of the rulemaking power of the Court. The State Reporter is appointed by the judges of the Court of Appeals under Section 13-201 of the Article. In accordance with the provisions of Section 13-203, it is a duty of the State Reporter to prepare for publication the official reports known as Maryland Reports and Maryland Appellate Reports, of cases decided in the Court of Appeals of Maryland or in the Court of Special Appeals and designated by the respective court to be reported. The program provides for the purchase of copies of each volume of the Maryland Reports and copies of each volume of the Maryland Appellate Reports as specified in the contract. The Commission on Judicial Disabilities was created by Article IV, Sections 4A and 4B of the Maryland Constitution to receive complaints, investigate, hold formal hearings if necessary, and file a report and recommendation with the Court of Appeals of Maryland with respect to the censure, retirement or removal of judges. The State Board of Law Examiners operates pursuant to the Business Occupations and Professions Article, Sections 10-201 through 10-203, and the Rules Governing Admission to the Bar of Maryland. The Board registers law students, checks their pre-legal and legal education, has character investigations made, and administers examinations twice a year to those qualified to take them. It has authority to recommend the admission to the bar of qualified attorneys from other jurisdictions upon proof of good moral character.

C00A00.11 Family Law Division

Program Description

Consistent with the expressed interest of the General Assembly, in 1998 the Maryland Judiciary established family divisions, as supported by Maryland Rule 16-204, within the State's five largest jurisdictions. These were established in Anne Arundel County, Baltimore City, Baltimore County, Montgomery County, and Prince George's County. The family divisions have jurisdiction over all civil matters related to the family: divorce, custody, child support, visitation, domestic violence, paternity, adoption, guardianship, involuntary commitments, CINA/CINS, and juvenile delinquency. Those counties without separate family divisions are provided with a family support coordinator and a budget for services to establish a spectrum of services and to reorient case management processes to ensure the comprehensive and holistic treatment of families. Funds provided by the General Assembly are used to operate Maryland's family law system, which represents 48% of the circuit court caseload. Funds are provided to local jurisdictions in the form of grants. Additional funds are used to provide special project grants to provide access to the family justice system in both the District and Circuit courts. Family law hotlines, domestic violence legal services, high conflict custody representation projects, and other projects that improve the ability of families and children to participate in the family justice system are also provided.
